Explore the Canyons of Aparados da Serra - 6 days and 5 nights

Discover one of Brazil's most stunning destinations, located on the border between Santa Catarina and Rio Grande do Sul. This itinerary offers the perfect combination of adventure, stunning scenery and comfort. Ideal for those who want to experience the grandeur of nature with unique and exciting experiences.

Why visit the Aparados da Serra Canyons?

The Aparados da Serra canyons are among the largest in the world, comparable in grandeur to the Grand Canyon in the United States. However, while the Grand Canyon offers arid, desert landscapes, the Brazilian canyons stand out for their slopes covered in Atlantic Forest, crystal-clear rivers, impressive waterfalls and exuberant biodiversity. It is a unique setting, where adventure blends with natural wealth in every detail.

Itinerary Highlights:

- Sunrise balloon ride, flying over the canyons.
- Exclusive trails through the Atlantic Forest, rivers and waterfalls.
- Quad bike adventures, crossing rivers and country roads.
- Visits to the impressive Itaimbezinho and Fortaleza canyons.
- Accommodation at the Pedra Afiada Ecological Refuge, a paradise surrounded by nature.

2nd day: Sunrise in a balloon and Poço do Malacara trail

Highlights:

Balloon flight at sunrise (subject to weather conditions), offering a panoramic view of the canyons and the Serra Geral mountain range.

Experience:

After breakfast, enjoy a moment of relaxation. In the afternoon, take a guided walk to Poço do Malacara, an accessible trail that crosses rivers of multicolored rocks to crystal-clear natural pools. During the summer, enjoy a refreshing swim amidst the imposing walls of the canyon. Total duration of the activity: 3 hours.

Day 3: Exploring the Canyons from Above

Highlights:

Tour in a 4x4 vehicle through the upper parts of the Itaimbezinho and Fortaleza canyons, the largest and most grandiose in the region, located in the Aparados da Serra National Park and the Serra Geral National Park.

Experience:

Guided hikes along the rims of the canyons, with impressive views of vertical walls over 700 meters high. Lunch in Cambará do Sul (not included), a picturesque mountain town known for its hospitality and local cuisine. Return to the accommodation at the end of the day to rest.

4th day: Borges Waterfall and Cultural Site

Highlights:

Visit the Cascata dos Borges, one of the most spectacular in the region, 70 meters high, in the middle of a forest of giant trees.

Experience:

Hike to the base and top of the waterfall (30 minutes each trail, medium level). Lunch in a private park (included in the optional meal package). In the afternoon, visit the Sítio Cultural Museu da Estância, a space that preserves the memory of the region, with historical relics, local music and a warm welcome. Return to the lodge at the end of the day for leisure and relaxation.

Day 5: Quad Bike Adventure and Farewell

Highlights:

Guided ATV tour (approx. 1 hour) along exclusive trails, crossing rivers and exploring back roads that lead to privileged views of the canyons, including the Índios Coroados Canyon.

Experience:

After the tour, free time to explore the leisure areas of the inn. At a time to be arranged, private transfer back to Salgado Filho Airport in Porto Alegre.
